

MODERN AWARD GUIDE

derived from the

Medical Practitioners Award 2010 [MA000031]

Effective from 01 July 2012.

Published 22 June 2012

This guide was developed by the Fair Work Ombudsman and is derived from the above modern award which commenced operating on 01 January 2010.

The wage rates in this guide apply from 01 January 2010.

Who should use the guide?

This guide is a helpful tool for all employees and employers who are covered by the above modern award to identify their wages and conditions.

The guide contains information about:

- who the award covers
- wage rates, including rates for casual employees, junior employees, trainees and apprentices if these employees are covered by the modern award
- penalties for working at particular times or under particular arrangements, including what hourly rate
- allowances and other conditions of employment.

What if an agreement applies to covered employees?

All employees covered by the modern award must not be paid less than the minimum wage rates contained in this guide. The terms of an agreement or modern award cannot exclude the terms of the National Employment Standards (the NES).

It is important to note that any other entitlements and conditions in this guide will not apply to employees covered by an agreement-based instrument (detailed below).

Employees and employers should refer to their agreement-based instrument for their employment conditions and entitlements.

Enquiries should be referred to the Fair Work Infoline on 13 13 94.

Australian Government

Fair Work
OMBUDSMAN

Coverage

This occupational award covers employers of medical practitioners throughout Australia in the classifications listed in clause 14—Minimum annual salaries to the exclusion of any other modern award.

The award does not cover an employee excluded from award coverage by the Fair Work Act.

The award does not cover employees who are covered by a modern enterprise award, or an enterprise instrument (within the meaning of the Fair Work (Transitional Provisions and Consequential Amendments) Act 2009 (Cth)), or employers in relation to those employees.

The award does not cover employees who are covered by a State reference public sector modern award, or a State reference public sector transitional award (within the meaning of the Fair Work (Transitional Provisions and Consequential Amendments) Act 2009 (Cth)), or employers in relation to those employees.

This award covers any employer which supplies on - hire employees in classifications set out in clause 14 and those on - hire employees, if the employer is not covered by another modern award containing a classification which is more appropriate to the work performed by the employee. This subclause operates subject to the exclusions from coverage in this award.

Where an employer is covered by more than one award, an employee of that employer is covered by the award classification which is most appropriate to the work performed by the employee and to the environment in which the employee normally performs the work.

Penalty Guide

Method of calculation

For full time and part time employees, the penalty rates set out in this table will be applied to the relevant rate of pay as follows (unless otherwise specified): rate of pay x penalty.

For casual and loaded part time employees, the method of calculation may differ. The reference table below sets out the different calculation methods that may apply and assigns a code to each method.

To determine which method of calculation will apply to a given penalty, the relevant code is displayed in the 'amount' column of the penalty table. For example, if (a) appears in the 'amount' column, the method of calculation that will apply is: (Rate of pay + casual/part time loading) x Penalty. If no code appears, the penalty rate will not apply to casuals or loaded part time employees.

Code	Casual/Part Time Rates Calculation
a	(rate of pay + casual/part time loading) x penalty
b	rate of pay x (casual/part time loading + penalty)
c	penalty
d	rate of pay + casual/part time loading
e	rate of pay x penalty (no casual/part time loading)
f	(rate of pay + penalty) x casual/part time loading

9	Dispute resolution (Instrument)	The award sets out a dispute resolution procedure for dealing with disputes in relation to a matter under the award or the National Employment Standards (NES).
10.3	Part-time conditions (Instrument)	A part-time employee is an employee who works less than 38 hours per week on a reasonably predictable basis. A part-time employee is entitled to the same pay and conditions of a full-time employee on a pro rata basis.
10.4	Casual conditions (Instrument)	A casual employee will be paid at the rate of 1/38th of the relevant full time weekly rate plus 25%.
11.1	Termination of employment	Notice of termination by an employer

Clause	Conditions Type	Description
	(Fair Work Act 2009 - National Employment Standard)	An employer is required to provide notice of termination (or payment in lieu of notice) to an employee based on the employee's period of continuous service as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Not more than 1 year of service: 1 week - More than 1 year but not more than 3 years of service: 2 weeks - More than 3 years but not more than 5 years of service: 3 weeks - More than 5 years of service: 4 weeks The period of notice will increase by 1 week if the employee is over 45 years old and has completed at least 2 years of continuous service with the employer.
11.2	Termination of employment - notice of termination by an employee (Instrument)	The notice of termination required to be given by an employee is the same as an employer except there is no requirement to give additional notice based on age. If an employee fails to give the required notice the employer may withhold from any monies due on termination, the difference between the amount of notice required and the amount of notice actually given.
11.3	Termination of employment - job search entitlement (Instrument)	Where an employer has given notice of termination to an employee, an employee must be allowed up to one day's time off without loss of pay for the purpose of seeking other employment. The time off is to be taken at times that are convenient to the employee after consultation with the employer.
12.1	Redundancy (Fair Work Act 2009 - National Employment Standard)	An employer is required to provide redundancy pay at the base rate of pay for ordinary hours based on the employee's period of continuous service with the employer as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - At least 1 year but less than 2 years of service: 4 weeks - At least 2 years but less than 3 years of service: 6 weeks - At least 3 years but less than 4 years of service: 7 weeks - At least 4 years but less than 5 years of service: 8 weeks - At least 5 years but less than 6 years of service: 10 weeks - At least 6 years but less than 7 years of service: 11 weeks - At least 7 years but less than 8 years of service: 13 weeks - At least 8 years but less than 9 years of service: 14 weeks - At least 9 years but less than 10 years of service: 16 weeks - At least 10 years of service: 12 weeks

12.2	Redundancy - transfer to lower paid duties (Instrument)	Where an employee is transferred to lower paid duties by reason of redundancy, the same period of notice must be given as the employee would have been entitled to if the employment had been terminated. Alternatively, the employer may choose to pay the employee the difference between the former ordinary time rate of pay and the new ordinary time rate of pay for the number of weeks of notice still owing.
12.3	Redundancy - employee leaving during notice period (Instrument)	An employee given notice of termination in circumstances of redundancy may terminate their employment during the period of notice. The employee is entitled to receive the benefits and payments they would have received had they remained in employment until the expiry of the notice, but is not entitled to payment instead of notice.
12.4	Redundancy - job search entitlement (Instrument)	An employee given notice of termination in circumstances of redundancy must be allowed up to one day's time off without loss of pay during each week of notice for the purpose of seeking other employment. If the employee has been allowed paid leave for more than one day, the employee must, by request, produce proof of attendance at an interview or they will not be entitled to payment for the time absent. For this purpose a statutory declaration is sufficient.
12.5	Redundancy - transitional provisions (Instrument)	An employee is entitled to redundancy pay in accordance with the notional agreement preserving a State award that would have applied immediately prior to 1 January 2010, if the employee had at that time been in their current circumstances of employment and no agreement-based transitional instrument or enterprise agreement had applied to the employee and that would have entitled the employee to redundancy pay in excess of the employee's entitlement under the NES. This includes employees engaged after 1 January 2010. The entitlement to redundancy pay under the notional agreement preserving a State award is limited to the amount which exceeds the entitlement under the NES. This clause does not operate to diminish an employee's entitlement to redundancy pay under any other instrument and ceases to operate on 31 December 2014.
16.2	Away from home/usual place of employment (Instrument)	Where the employer provides board and lodging, the annual minimum salaries prescribed in this award will be reduced by $53.99 per week.

Modern Award Guide - Background

This guide provides information on wages, penalties, loadings, allowances and other conditions of employment, derived from the 01 January 2010 version of the modern award.

Employers that a modern award applies to must provide at least the minimum terms and conditions in that modern award to all employees to whom the modern award applies.

One of the responsibilities of the Fair Work Ombudsman is to ensure compliance with the Fair Work Act 2009.

If an employer is able to demonstrate that they have paid at least the rates published in this guide, including wages, allowances, loadings and penalties, the Fair Work Ombudsman will be satisfied that the employer has met those obligations under the modern award. The employer will need to have paid the wage rate for all hours worked and for the correct classification for the work the employee does.

The Fair Work Act 2009 requires that time and wages records be kept and payslips issued. Employers will also need to demonstrate that this requirement has been complied with.

Who is not covered by this guide?

Despite the coverage provisions of this guide, conditions in this guide do not apply to an employee or employer while the employee or employer is covered by one of the following agreements:

- Australian Workplace Agreements (AWA)
- Certified agreements (made before 27 March 2006)
- Collective agreements (made between 27 March 2006 and 30 June 2009)
- Enterprise agreements (made after 01 July 2009)
- Individual Transitional Employment Agreements (ITEA)
- Old IR Agreements (made before 1997)
- Preserved Collective State Agreements (made in a state system before 27 March 2006)
- Preserved Individual State agreement (made in a state system before 27 March 2006)
- Section 170MX Awards (made before 27 March 2006)
- Workplace Determinations

The guide will also not apply to employees covered by an enterprise specific award-based transitional instrument, including:

- pre-reform awards (made prior to 27 March 2006)
- notional agreements preserving state awards (made in a state system before 27 March 2006)

Take home pay orders

Modern awards are not intended to reduce an employee's take-home pay. If an employee suffers a reduction in their overall take-home pay as a result of the modern award applying, they can apply for Fair Work Australia to make an order ensuring their pay is not reduced.
